we are indebted to . . .

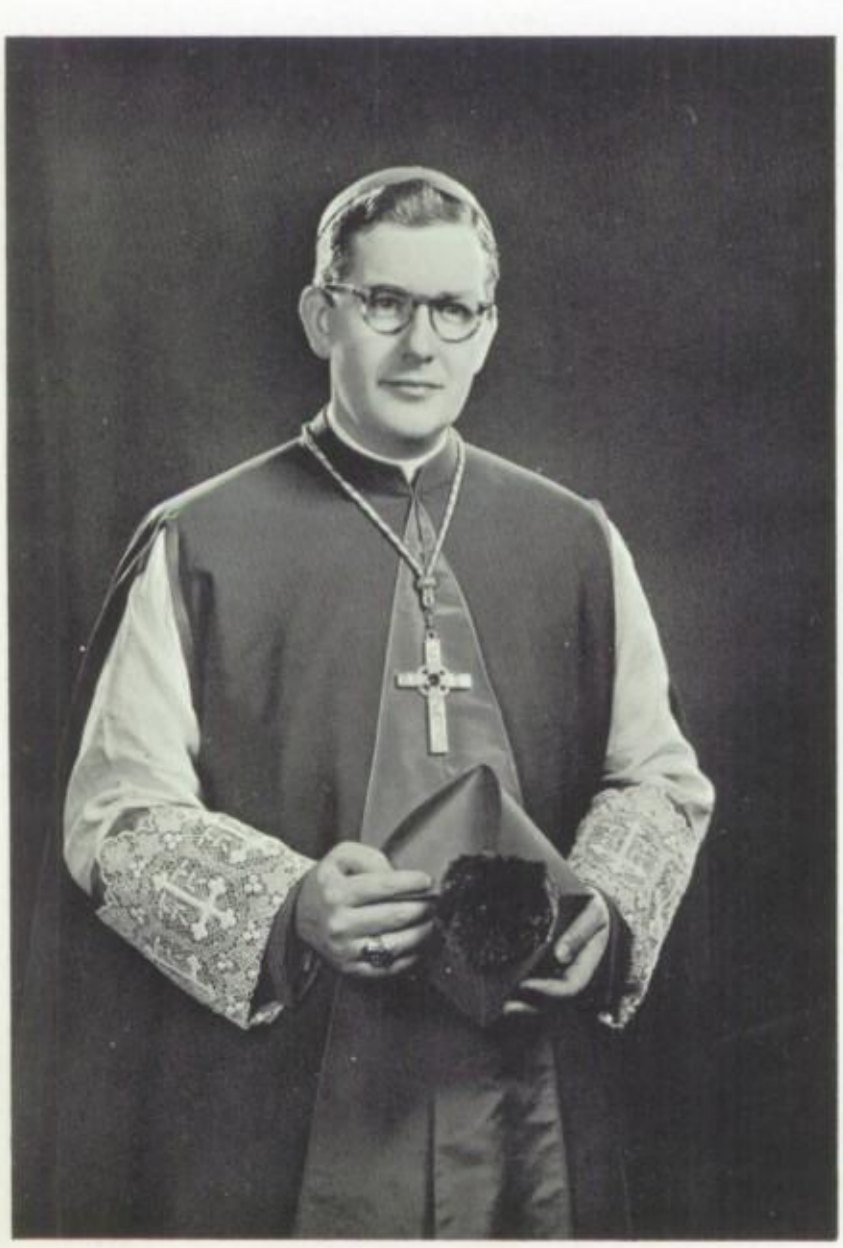
THE MOST REV. EMMET M. WALSH, D.D.
Bishop of Youngstown

Cardinal Mooney High School stands as a living tribute to your unswerving interest in the education of Catholic youth. We, the recipients of your efforts, proffer our most sincere gratitude to you for making this singularly, complete education available to us. It is our fond hope that in the future, we, as religious or laymen, may repay you by actively participating in some phase of this work so dear to your heart.



THE MOST REV. JAMES W. MALONE, D.D.
Auxiliary Bishop of Youngstown
Diocesan Superintendent of Schools

The high standards of personal and scholastic achievement which you instituted here at our Alma Mater are of such quality that they will profitably affect the balance of our lives, both here and hereafter. The calibre of Catholic education in Youngstown has been adequately reflected in your own life. Your elevation to the Bishopric gives particular evidence of it. May God grant you His graces to perform the numerous difficult tasks which lie before you.

and GUIDANCE

REV. WILLIAM A. HUGHES
Principal

To be the first and the best . . . this is tradition at CMHS. Looking back, we find that this has been based upon the quality and character of our first principal. It is you, Father Hughes, who has made Cardinal Mooney not just a good school, but the finest in the city of Youngstown. We, the Class of '61, hope that in coming years, we will be able to express our gratitude to you for your many efforts in the way which would please you most: by being men and women devoted to the service of our God, our neighbor, and our nation.

REV. DAVID L. LETTAU
Assistant Principal

We have often been told that God provides the necessary graces to aid us through difficult times. Perhaps the best way we can express our regard for you is to say that we think of you as that special "grace" sent from God to guide us through the four difficult years of high school. Your gentle voice, deep understanding and warm friendship are the qualities which we shall recall memorably as a vital part of our high school days.

CLASS HISTORY

"In those wonderful years, we hope to see
The past re-appear like a memory . . .

We'll show you the way it used to be,
Remembering . . ."

Just for a moment, let's misquote Shakespeare and ask, "What's in a year," or two, or even four? Let's take the years 1957 to 1961, for example. To some, they're merely a closed book, a forgotten memory, or just another year gone by. But for many, and especially for the Class of '61, these years are the ones that will live long after the fond memories of graduation day have died.

Remember that day in September of '57, when as gangling, awkward Freshmen, we pushed open the glass doors in the main lobby of CMHS, and entered the building which would house our hearts and become our home for the next few years. Looking back, we can almost laugh at the apprehensions we felt at first; they were laughable, because we soon found that our present classmates felt the same way; and the other members of the student body, as well as the faculty, were as friendly and helpful as their tradition prescribed. Before long, we became an active part of that wonderful group known as the Mooneyites.

The "Get-Acquainted Dance" sponsored by the school on September 19, served the very purpose that its title suggests, for it was here that we met the people with whom we would spend the next four years; and it was here at our first high school dance that we initiated friendships meant to last a lifetime.

Sports at CMHS were not too prominent in '57, as our school was not to become a member of the City Series until the following year. To us, though, the fine efforts of our athletes in that first year, are fond memories. Can you recall that first exciting football game with Wilson? Together we sat on the cold bleachers at South Stadium while our eyes were blinded by the radiance of the floodlights; our voices hoarse from endless cheering; and our hearts filled with admiration for the rugged team on the field below. Although technically we lost the game, we won something too; it was at this first game that we, as Freshmen, were indoctrinated into the new tradition of school spirit which was to become our trademark. Under the guidance of Coach John Hudzik, the team ended the season with an outstanding record, an impressive mark for such a youthful team.

Speaking of football, we cannot overlook our first undefeated Freshman football team; it was not only the first, but the best. Aided by the determination and effort of their coach, Denny Barrett, and the able scoring talents of Jim Daley and Don Dailey, the team closed its season with a 4-0 record.

Faculty—65, Varsity—64 . . . no, it's not a semester average; it's just the final score at the end of the first Faculty vs. Varsity basketball game, held on April 16. Each year since that first game, the faculty and varsity teams have tangled in a mass of rheumatic pain and perspiration to test the virility and power of the elderly opponents against the talent and drive of their youthful counterparts.

"To make a good Confession is to make a successful retreat." These were the profound words of Father George Popovich, who headed our first retreat at CMHS during the week of January 27. Throughout this novel experience, we did our best to keep silence; but that was difficult for the Seniors, let alone for Freshmen, such as we.

In April of '58, the first graduating class of Mooney in their Junior vote, chose a distinctive and artful design for what was to become the traditional class ring of Mooney. In the following month, Father Hughes blessed the rings and presented them to the Junior Class. As they flaunted their newest pieces of jewelry before our eyes, we envied them and looked forward to the day when we, too, might adorn our hands with the symbolically beautiful red and gold rings.

Our Freshman year, climaxed with the distribution of report cards and the happy knowledge that we had completed our first successful year of high school, was brought to a close on June 10. For the next three months, we baked in the sun and rested up for another full and exciting year.

"THIS IS MY COUNTRY . . ." the booming voices got our Sophomore year off to a national patriotic start as Val Gould impressed upon our young minds the importance of our generation to the free peoples of the world.

That patriotism was quickly carried over to a local basis when, a week later, the second annual magazine drive got underway. "Sell those magazines" was the slogan which echoed through the halls as dedicated students tested their salesmanship. At the end of the two-week campaign, that dedication resulted in sufficient funds to complete the parking lot behind the school. In addition, by selling an unprecedented sum of $15,400, Mooney High students received the 1959 Look Award for salesmanship.

Humility in victory, graciousness in defeat . . . this was the formula of good sportsmanship in the chemistry of high school athletics at CMHS. In mentioning sports we cannot forget school spirit which must go hand-in-hand with sportsmanship in every game. The school spirit of every single Mooneyite was shown during the week of October 13, better known as "Beat Ursuline Week."

On Monday of this first week of weeks, the entire school had an interior redecoration job in red and gold. Wednesday morning found the remains of Ursuline spirit being carried into the school lobby by six solemn pallbearers and followed by a procession of "mourners." Friday, October 15, on the eve of the most important football game in Mooney history, a pep rally was held in the school gym. The most impressive event of the week took place that day—the first public singing of our Cardinal Mooney Alma Mater.

On the following Saturday the stage was set for another Mooney first. At the fourth quarter, the scoreboard read 6 to 0 in favor of our opponents. And then, with two minutes and forty-seven seconds left to play, fabulous quarter-back Jim Traficant threw a twenty-yard pass to an alert Mooney end who ran fifteen yards for a touchdown. Combining their efforts once more, these two players scored the two extra points which put Mooney in the lead. That night, the joy and happiness of hard-working Coach John Hudzik knew no bounds as he was presented with an Irish shillelagh, the symbol of victory.

The next day, headlines spread across the front of the sports page in bold, black print, proclaimed that victory with the words, "MOONEY JARS URSULINE!"

But in the midst of victory and tribute, sorrow was to come to Mooney. A matter of hours before the Electoral College gathered to elect a new Pope, death suddenly claimed our school patron, Edward Cardinal Mooney. Sorrow filled the heart of every student, because a great and beloved man had left this world. However, the evident facts that a Prince of the Church rose to even greater heights and became a Prince of God; and that a great school stood in his honor, graduating faithful alumni who would uphold his and its respected name, became thoughts of consolation to each of us.

The '58-'59 season on Broadway had nothing over CMHS. The "Spirit of Christmas" brought to all a keynote of musical variety. A few months later, all authentic and "would be" Irishmen experienced a goodly amount of Irish luck when they attended the "Donegal Fair," a production complemented by rollicking jugs and lilting lullabies in honor of Saint Patrick. Closing the season with a "sell-out" success, the senior class of '59 presented the annual senior play, "Cheaper by the Dozen."

With sorrow at their departure and a prayer for their success, we bid farewell to the first graduating class of Cardinal Mooney on June 8, 1959. It seemed almost impossible to fill the void of leadership and ability left by that class; but we, who would be Juniors in the coming Fall, looked forward with eagerness to our new positions as upperclassmen and, with the fierce ambition of youth, anxiously awaited our chance to "take over the reigns."

OUR FIRST OFFICIAL DUTY as upperclassmen was to elect class officers for our Junior year. With careful scrutiny, we cast our nominations and later assembled in the cafeteria to hear Father Hughes approvingly announce the names of our chosen leaders. The wisdom with which we made our choices was well-founded, for the students we chose led us ably and successfully through our third eventful year of high school.

As in the past, our Junior year was filled with exciting football games, vigorous rallies, and undying spirit. Perhaps the most exciting of the pigskin events was the Mooney-East battle. Entering the ball game as the under-dog against one of the best-rated teams in the city, Mooney gridders successfully held their foes to a 6-6 tie. It was this game particularly, which provided the first real test of strength and spirit for the school and the team. Although the victory was not carried home by the Mooney team, even the newspapers reported the result as a "moral victory" for CMHS.

On stage, the spotlight turned its radiant beam on the three major productions of the year. "It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas" at CMHS was successfully proven by the Dramatics Club at their annual Christmas play. Later in the year, this same group told a tale all about the internal affairs of Ireland—items like "Shamrocks, Shillelaghs and Shenanigans." The Senior class of '60 extended a spirited invitation to "Meet Me in St. Louis" via their successful and rousing Senior play.

The first Student Council elections at CMHS combined all the splendor and gusto of a political convention with the exuberant spirit of the Cardinals. Red, white and blue provided the patriotic decor in the school gym where each of the office aspirants and their campaign managers gave three-minute orations dealing with their own or their candidate's qualifications for office. Student voters listened attentively and cast their ballots according to personal choice. Under the capable direction of its moderator, Father Lettau, our first Student Council began its first and most commendable work. We, who initiated this governing body, will not benefit from its future achievements; but the knowledge that our class had a hand in its beginning provides greater satisfaction than any benefits we might have gained.

"These rings which you are about to receive, symbolize loyalty to our school motto of sanctity, scholarship and discipline." With these words, Father Hughes blessed our class rings and presented them to us personally on stage in the cafeteria. In the years that follow our graduation, these rings will serve as constant reminders of that which they symbolize, as well as the good principles and habits we acquired here at Mooney.

It was on a brisk, moon-lit May evening that the Prom Committee brought our nation's capitol to Mooney. The sight and scent of cherry blossoms filled the air as young debs in pastel gowns accompanied by escorts in smart white dinner jackets, swayed gracefully to the music of Lennie Esposito's band. To climax the evening in grand fashion, Mary Jane McAtee and Tom Skowron were elected and honored as President and First Lady. Idealistically, that first high school prom is to be an unforgettable moment; realistically, a "Night in Washington" as CMHS was just that and more.

Cedar Lake will not easily forget that day in May when some 340 Cardinal Mooney Juniors converged about "ye ole' swimmin' hole" for their annual Junior Class picnic. Remember that touch-football game with Father Lettau? How about those amateur-photographers who were forever snapping "action shots" as souvenirs of that day. Perhaps even you were one of the students who took a "dip" in the lake, not of your own accord. In any case, our Junior class picnic may have been a little wet from the $H_2O$ point of view; but it was filled with fun and frolic shared by all.

As we sat in the Stambaugh Auditorium and witnessed the second graduating class receive their diplomas, we realized that we were next; in exactly one year we would be standing on the stage, in the same spot, ready to plunge into a new world of adulthood. But meantime, we had one more year, the last and the best at CMHS.

ON SEPTEMBER 7, we returned to begin our final year. Watching the underclassmen gathering their books and schedules, looking for rooms, and opening lockers—all brought back memories. It was like a giant motion picture screen, flashing back all the happy, and sometimes turbulent moments in our past years at CMHS.

The before we knew it, we were Seniors, ready to begin the last leg of a highway leading toward adulthood. That highway was ear-marked with numerous events. To record them all would be impossible; so, we fondly look at the special and most unforgettable ones.

As in each of the preceding years, football was the first in a series of challenges designed to test the spirit and drive of the Cardinals. Accordingly, Mooney came through with flying colors—red and gold, of course. The team not only ended the season with a 4-4-1 record, but also had one of its players named to the Vindicator "All-City Team." With Tom Skowran, our All-City end, and little Jim Mumaw, halfback, given honorable mention, Mooney's '60 team was indeed praise-worthy. A tribute was paid to the entire team when, at the close of the football season, the annual "Pigskin Dance" was held, and all loyal Cardinal backers turned out to honor the team.

But the rough-and-tumble players weren't the only ones on the field during the football season. The band and the high-stepping majorettes deserve commendation for the excellent half-time shows they presented at every game. Along with the cheerleaders, successful teamwork was evident.

CMHS is a school with one all-important goal—the growth and improvement of each student into a good Catholic adult. The means to attain this goal is complemented by the many clubs which channel diversified interests of each student. The NHS, the FTA, the Dramatics Club, the Auto Club, the Speech Team, the language clubs, and others—all aid in developing the talents and future plans so important in high school years.

In late December, varsity sports again stole the scene; this time in the form of basketball. Under the guidance and perseverance of Mr. Kuzma, the Mooney five chalked up the best season record in this sport since the opening of our school. The unprecedented mark was 7-12.

While it may not have been in Todd-AO technicolor, Mooneyites and friends made a record trip around the world at Christmas time in just about one hour. Jigs and jingle-bells, sombreros and Christmas stockings all made an impressive appearance in the Dramatics Club's presentation, "Christmas Around the World."

Wishin' on a star quickly became outmoded when all the Irish lads and lassies at Mooney tried catchin' a leprechaun and "Wishin' With a Brogue," at the annual St. Patrick's Day show.

While it may be true that "You Can't Take It With You," those who saw our Senior class play certainly took with them all the memories of a fine and brilliant performance. At the same time, those who portrayed the characters in this three-act hilarious comedy will never forget the fun of putting it together, or the feeling of excitement at the call, "Curtain going up!" But because there is no sound more pleasing to the human ear than that of applause, perhaps the best part of all was the final curtain-call at the end of the show. The cast was tremendous. The Seniors—one and all—scored and shared another howling success.

A sailor's heaven was created the night the Junior class presented "Neptune's Paradise," the nautical theme of the annual Junior-Senior Prom. The sweet and pleasant memories of our last prom were reiterated; we can only say that it was wonderful. When the music stopped and the lights went out, it was all over; we closed the door on the last dance that we as Seniors would ever attend at CMHS. The memories of it will, however, be locked behind the doors of our minds, and in the years ahead, maybe someday we'll find a key to open those doors and relive that dance all over again.

The remaining few weeks of school after the prom passed quickly as our last fragments of energy and enthusiasm dawdled out on rehearsals, our class picnic, senior parties, and of course, the Baccalaureate breakfast.

On June 4, we, the members of the Class of '61, stood together with our classmates for the last time and received our high school diplomas from His Excellency, Bishop Emmet M. Walsh.

On that stage, there was a turbulent sea of emotions, all being crowded into one short hour of time. For some, a feeling of remorse at the thought, 'Perhaps I could have done better, tried a little harder'; for the particularly far-sighted ones, there was a feeling of joy at the fact that with diploma in hand, they were ready to lunge forth into adult life and a world beyond the sheltered structure of childhood. But for almost everyone, at one moment or another during that time on stage, there was a feeling of emptiness. All at once we realized that we were leaving all the familiar companionship of friends we had known perhaps all our lives, of people with whom we had grown up. We were leaving the warm security of high school life, a life which we had come to know, and for some, even to love. Some of our friends we would never see again. Never would we join voices in body to sing our Alma Mater, nor cheer our football team on to victory. Never again would we meet in the cafeteria to dance, nor assemble in the gym for Mass or activities. All of that was gone; it was our graduation day, the beginning of an end.

As we go through life, we'll realize that graduation was necessary; that we couldn't always remain in the warm security of high school life. If we follow the course that God has mapped out for us; if, when we come to the rocks of life and conquer them, we will go on and on along the course to the sea of eternity, will be united forever, with our companions . . . but more important, when we reach that end, God will look down upon us and smile, saying . . .

"Well done, good and faithful servant; this day thou shall be with Me in Paradise."
